Introduction

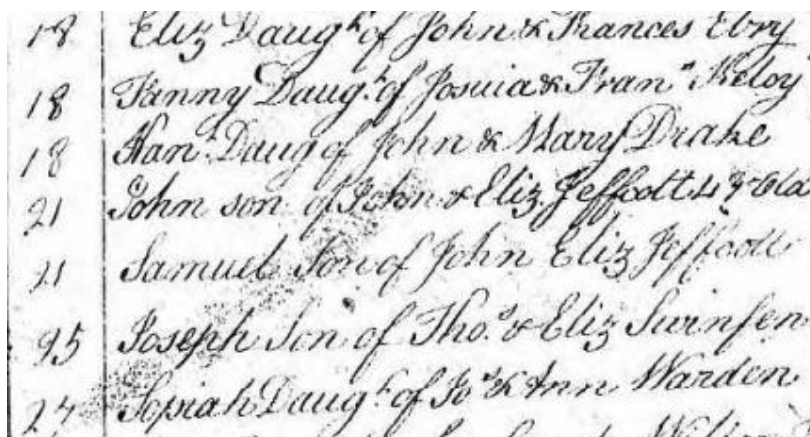

Our knowledge of this family came from Evelyn Woodward of Nottingham and Joan Gillespie of Huddersfield. They have both done individual research, although, between us all, we have not been able to take the family tree beyond Samuel and Lucy.

Evelyn's great grandmother was Harriet, b 1840, and Joan's grandmother was Ada, b 1873. In June 2001, we received an email from Robert Alan Jeffcoate who offered additional details.

The following letters have been received in connection with this family.

627, 629, 669, 770, 774, 778, 794

By 2020, we had found Samuel's baptism in at St Nicholas, Nuneaton, taking us a generation further back. He was baptised with his brother (we assume) on the same day in August 1793. Here are a couple of items that show Samuel, his baptism and an extract from the 1851 census. A clear transition from Atherstone in Warwickshire to Tamworth in Staffordshire.
