Introduction

This is another of the families that we discovered whilst filling in the gaps in our GRO births index. Six daughters and one son, led to this family being, very soon, 'out-daughtered', as we have seen with other families during our research. From our one-name viewpoint, we can only follow the progeny of sons, as the daughters marry and their children will carry different family names.

We are not sure about its beginning with Joseph and Ann, as there are similarities with family BK. However, the Bedworth marriage between Joseph Jephcott and Ann Spencer in 1792 is a strong indicator, followed by the birth of John Wells Jephcott in 1806 in Bedworth. Could Wells have been the mother's maiden name, and not Spencer?
